

Strasbourg, April the 18th, 2012

Dear friends,

- How to keep in touch between us?
- How to be regularly informed about current actions within the international institutions, in particular in the Council of Europe?
- How to participate actively in the works of committees and working groups and to bring it your specific experience?

A new tool is at your disposal, effective and interactive:

Urgently, visit the website recently created for the members of Pax Romana-Europe:

<http://paxromanawien2012.org/>

You will find the more particular and recent information concerning our current actions in the Council of Europe by going to:

- home ▶ Institutions ▶ Council of Europe Strasbourg
- home ▶ Institutions ▶ European Court of Human Rights
- home ▶ Activities ▶ On-going processes
- home ▶ Themes ▶ Climate change

Please, do not hesitate to give your comments.

Especially, please transfer the information within your organization so that members having a specific expertise can be involved and participate.

Sincerely yours,

Philippe GROLLEAU
